My dear Miss Fraser:-

I want your advice about the work of the Interdenominational Committee for Home Mission Conferences in the East.

It is the duty of the officers to appoint the Committees. Should you think it wise to have the officers meet for a half hour before the regular meeting of the Committee on Friday, December the ninth to constitute the Committees, or would you have them meet just after the general Committee meeting?

It occurs to me that it might be wise to have the officers meet before and have the Committees constituted. Please let me have a line as to what you think?

Trusting you are keeping well and with kindest regards, I am,

Sincerely yours,

ELC

Edwin S. Allen.

New York, December 12, 1918.

Mrs. John S. Allen,
25 East 22nd St., City.

My dear Mrs. Allen:-

I am forwarding to you a copy of the minutes and will be very glad to know if you have any suggestions to make before I mail them to the other members.

In comparing the list of members in Mrs. Weid's minutes I find two changes, one in the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society Evangelical Lutheran Church, and one in the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church. I have noted these two names on the printed slip. I suppose, of course, the printed slip is correct but I shall be very glad to hear from you definitely regarding this matter.

In notifying the members of their appointment on committees, I presume I shall use letter postage and not post cards. I shall take this for granted unless I hear from you to the contrary.

I shall be glad if you will call me up by phone when you have read this letter and that will save your time.

With all good wishes, believe me,

Very sincerely yours,

My dear Miss Fraser:-

The minutes of the Northfield Committee meeting seem entirely correct as far as I can see.

I called up Miss Guernsey and asked her about the Methodist appointees for the Committee and she is unable to say whether Mrs. Woodruff or she is on that Committee and says she would have to wait until Mrs. Woodruff returns to know definitely. Hence, it would be well to send the information to Miss Guernsey.

Just before the folder was printed I was notified that Mrs. Zinsmister's place on the Committee was to be filled by Mrs. F. J. Baum. This notification came from the Secretary of their society. If Mrs. Zinsmister's has been returned they must have reconsidered.

Thank you very much for getting out the minutes so promptly. It means much when one has such heavy responsibilities as you must carry all the time.

I think I should use the letter postage for notifying the Committees.

With loving regards, I remain,

Sincerely yours,

Dear Miss Fraser:

Your letter containing by-laws covering the Interdenominational Commission of Women for Home Mission Conference for the East, duly received. I note that the by-laws which you enclose reduces the number of members of this Commission from nine to three. Does this leaflet chance to be an old one, or was there a change at the last meeting? Is there any way for me to understand what the duties of the Coordinating Committee shall be?

Thanking you for your kindness, I am,

My dear Mrs. Kaplesden:-

I have intended writing you and telling you that the "Flyer" was issued when I was absent in the early fall, and because of this the Chairman of the Committee was obliged to gather the information for the "Flyer" and I presume, therefore, is responsible for it. There are a number of serious mistakes which I regret exceedingly. It was our mistake in sending the last letter to you at the old address, but I have corrected it and in the future hope your mail will reach you without delay.

I do hope you are enjoying your new work and find the people of Philadelphia responsive. Personally, I have had some very delightful experiences in Philadelphia, and have most thoroughly enjoyed our people whom I know.

I have not seen Mrs. Allen since our meeting and in fact have had no definite news as to Council work. Mrs. Bennett proposes to go to Washington in a couple of weeks to meet the representatives of the Council of Men's Boards with a view, I believe, of arriving at some proposal regarding the fall campaign.

Wishing for you a most successful and joyous year of service, believe me,

My dear Mrs. MacDonell:-

I have delayed replying to your letter inquiring about the by-laws of the Interdenominational Committee of Woman for Home Mission Conferences for the East as I wished to obtain copies of previous by-laws, so as to write you with some degree of assurance. I believe that you have confused the Interdenominational Committee with The Council of Women for Home Missions. The Council of Women for Home Missions has consisted of nine women from each of the affiliated national Boards or Societies, but going back as far as I can in the By-laws for the Interdenominational Committee I find there is no change of Article 2 (See enclosure). I shall be very glad to hear from you, to know if this explanation is satisfactory. I do not wonder that you are confused, because you are a member of the Council of Women and also of the North-field Committee, and it is exceedingly diff cult at times to keep the two organizations perfectly distinct.

I presume, of course, that the chairman of the Nominating Committee will correspond with you as to the special work which she expects of you as a member of that committee.

Wishing for you a very happy year of successful service, believe me,

Very sincerely yours,

My dear Miss Fraser -

The Rev. Mr. Higgins writes that he will be unable to attend the Northfield Conference - Now can you suggest anyone to take his place that our Board would like to send or give this place - Some man with a good broad view of something - Indians or Lumber Camps preferred but anything else that you recommend will be acceptable.

When does Mrs Waid return? Glad you hear the death of Miss Harlan's brother - two days ago.
It will be a great blow to her as he was her only brother & she has no sisters -

Is there any Missionary of yours home from Alaska? I Personally I owned like a

My dear Miss Frazier:

your letter of Jan. 25th came to the office while I was absent in the interest of our work; hence my tardy reply.

I must confess to the confusion of which you write. I had understood when the Council of Women was organized, that the Interdenominational Committee for Home Mission Conference would be merged into the Council, and that this Interdenominational Conference was one department of the other work.

Am I to understand, therefore, by these distinct constitutions, that we truly belong to two distinct connectional bodies? I thank you for setting me straight. Another year I hope I shall be able to attend the annual meeting of the Woman's Council in New York. I am planning to attend the meeting at Northville.

Yours with kindest regards,

Mrs. R. W. Macdonell

Miss Mary L. Howard,

My dear Miss Howard:-

Yours of the 2nd is at hand. We are now able to give you definite rates for the entertainment of the delegates to the Home Missionary Conference the coming summer, the dates of which are to be July 21 to 27. We will reserve for the delegates to the Conference East and Weston Halls, and Betsey Moody Cottage will be available for the committee in charge of the Conference as soon as vacated by the Foreign Missionary Summer School Committee. We shall expect East Hall to be filled first, and if there should be only a few people in Weston Hall we should probably wish them to go to East for their meals. For these buildings for the full period of your Conference (seven days) beginning with dinner Friday, July 21, and ending with breakfast Saturday, July 28, the rates will be as follows:

Betsey Moody Cottage	$14.00, one in a room,
" " "	$10.50, each person two in a room.
East Hall and Weston Hall	$10.50, one in a room,
" " " " "	$ 9.00, each person, two in a room,
" " " " "	$ 8.00, each person, three in a room.
Tents, 12 x 15, with fly and floor,
Four in a tent,	$ 7.00, each person,
Three in a tent,	$ 7.75, each person,
Two in a tent,	$ 8.50, each person,
One in a tent,	$10.00

 C O P Y.

For those staying less than five days of the full time, except where the total rate given is less than the amount of the day rate, the rates will be as follows:

Betsey Moody Cottage,	$2.50 per day, one in a room,
" " "	$2.00 per day, each person, two in a room.
East Hall and Weston Hall,	$2.00 per day, one in a room,
" " " " "	$1.75 per day, each person, two in a room.
In tents, four in a tent,	$1.25 per day, each person.

For those of your delegates who desire tent accommodations we would locate them in as close proximity to the buildings you have as practicable, so they could have their head quarters in the building nearest to where they are located.

We would also be pleased to entertain at The Northfield any of your delegates who may wish to go there. The general weekly rates this year will be the same as last year, varying from $15.00 per week, each person, two in a room, or $17.00 per week, one in a room, up to $25.00 and $33.00, respectively. The latter rates include private bath. For a long stay we give a discount from these rates. Furthermore, the rates for any other month in the year, except August, are less than the rates quoted above. We should be glad to quote a definite rate for particular rooms or time, or give further information regarding entertainment at The Northfield that may be desired. I would thank you to mention the accommodations and rates offered at the Hotel in your circulars. If you wish further details about the arrangements there I would be pleased to give them.

Sincerely yours,
(signed) A. G. Moody.

Miss Mary L. Howard,
67 Collins St., Hartford, Conn.
My dear Miss Howard:-

I am exceedingly sorry to know that Mr. Higgins is not available for the Northfield Conference. The best suggestion that I can make now regarding Alaska is to invite the Hon. John G. Brady, 530 West 122nd St., New York City, to address that meeting. Gov. Brady went to Alaska over thirty years ago as one of the pioneer missionaries Board; he served most successfully for years and later left our service and went into business. Gov. Brady has a strong Christian character and is deeply interested in the missionary work for the native Alaskan, and while he has been paid for lecturing, I believe if you should write to him and explain the interdenominational character of this conference, and how anxious all of the churches are to have the Alaskan field satisfactorily presented, he would be willing to waive compensation. If you decide to ask him, I suggest that you frankly tell him that the Conference is not prepared to offer remuneration.

This is the only suggestion I can make at this time. It may be, however, that some of the Commissioners from Alaska who will be at the General Assembly, which convenes in Atlantic City, May 18th to 31st, and will be able to remain in this neighborhood for a vacation. The Com-missionary have not yet been appointed, and I am not sure that they would prove attractive speakers. I have one other possibility as a speaker - Dr. Meyers, who, like Gov. Brady, went to Alaska under our Board, but later withdrew and has been very successfully practicing medicine, with his headquarters at Ketchikan. I cannot, however, recommend Dr. Meyers as a speaker until I have more information about him.

Mrs. Reid will not be back for a few weeks. I cannot tell you how sorry I was to learn of the death of Miss Harlan's brother; she was very anxious about him when she was with us, and she was good enough to let me know when he went.

Please let me know what you decide about Gov. Brady and, in the meantime, I will be trying to have other speakers to suggest.

Very sincerely yours,

JF-lk

New York, February 20, 1911.

The Hon. John G. Brady,
530 West 122nd St., City.
My dear Governor Brady:-

I suppose you have had a note from Miss Howard, the Chairman of the Program Committee of the Interdenominational Committee of Women for Home Mission Conferences for the East, in reference to making an address at Northfield, Mass., this summer. I am writing this simply to tell you how much we would all appreciate your co-operation at that meeting, and how much it would mean for developing a general interest in Alaska. Personally, I think it would be of advantage to you, as it is an interdenominational meeting, held at Northfield, and the programs are always widely advertised, and I believe profitable engagements for lecturing might come to you from this meeting. However, you yourself must judge about that. I am simply telling how much we will all appreciate your co-operation if it seems, in your judgment, wise for you to accept this invitation.

With most cordial greetings for Mrs. Brady, and all good wishes, believe me,

Faithfully your friend,

My dear Miss Howard:-

I was very glad to follow your suggestion and write to Governor Brady and to hear from him, as you doubtless have, that he will speak for us at Northfield. I do not feel myself that my letter had anything to do in effecting his decision, but I am very glad that we have been able to secure him for he is a thoroughly representative man.

Our Board will be very glad to send Miss Cameron to Northfield to speak on the missionary work. Miss Cameron was one of our missionaries at the Normal & Collegiate, and during the past few months has been very succesful in presenting that field to our societies.

I trust that the preparations will go forward, and that we may have the provisional program printed before very long.

Very sincerely yours,

New York City, N. Y., March 10th, 1911.

Miss M. Van Marter,
150 Fifth Avenue,
New York City, N. Y.

My dear Miss Van Marter:-

At the called meeting of the Executive Committee of the Interdenominational Committee of Women for Home Mission Conferences for the East you were appointed to succeed Miss Florence Gillies as Chairman of the Press Committee. On request of the Committee our Chairman telephoned you while we were in session, and we were rejoiced to have your acceptance at that time. Miss Gillies' resignation was necessary because of her serious illness and continued absence from the city. She is now in California for an indefinite period.

I am writing now to officially notify you of our action, and also to suggest the wisdom of doing a little broader work than is usually contemplated by the Press Committee. It is exceedingly advisable to advertise the Northfield Conference as widely as possible, and to advertise it especially to enlist the co-operation of young women, the wisdom of having denominational parlor meetings has been suggested. The members of the Committee present thought it would be wise to tell you of this plan and ask if you could not interest a representative of each of the denominations in holding such a meeting at some time in the early spring. I feel confident that Mrs. Waid would be very glad to co-operate with you as far as possible in planning such a meeting for the Presbyterians. I know that I would be most happy to co-operate with Mrs. Waid as far as possible, but I think it would be better to consider her as the representative of our Church in this movement.

Again expressing to you our very warm appreciation of your delightful co-operation in this time of emergency, and with all good wishes, I am,

Yours very sincerely,

JF/DMF.

My dear Mrs. Mapleson::

I wrote you some time ago telling you that the "FLYER" was issued in the early fall when I was absent, and because of this the chairman of the committee was obliged to gather the information regarding names and addresses in any manner she possibly could. The "FLYER" was published before your note was received, with the change of address; that letter was misdirected and has been returned to our office.

I am so glad to know you are back in New York, and I trust that you are enjoying the work and that it is prospering in your hands.

These are such anxious days for us, as our fiscal year closes in a short time and we can't but be very uneasy over finances.

My dear Mrs. MacDonell:-

I have most thoroughly enjoyed your letter of March 7th, because when I first came to New York I labored under exactly the same difficulty which has confused you, for I do think it is exceedingly confusing to have the Council of Women and the Interdenominational Committee for Home Mission Conferences for the East with the same women responsible for each, but I think now the situation will be cleared and it will be easier to understand definitely the work.

I suppose you have had samples of the enclosed leaflet; they are exceedingly helpful and a careful reading of it will immeasurably strengthen the interest of women in Home Missions.

I sincerely trust you may be able to attend the next meeting of the Council, for I am anticipating meeting you then. I fear it will be impossible for me to attend Northfield this summer, but I believe the meeting there will be unusually strong.

With kindest regards, and all good wishes, believe me,
